Important Notes

1. The fee for Karnataka domicile students (marked #) is the actual fee payable and excludes the scholarship amount.

2. Though the fee is fixed for two years, a periodic nominal increase may apply to meet rising costs.

3. NRI fee applies in the first year for candidates who studied a foreign syllabus (UGC/AIU approved) while residing in India; from the second year onward, the Other Indian States fee applies. This condition does not apply to candidates who applied under the NRI category.

4. NRI fee applies for the full programme duration for candidates who completed their last qualifying exam outside India, or who are NRI / applied under the NRI category.

5. To claim the Karnataka or Indian category fee, candidates must have studied in Karnataka or India for the last 7 years (not applicable to OCI, PIO, and Foreign Nationals).

6. The Admission Registration fee of INR 8,000/- (US $100 for foreign nationals/PIO/OCI) is non-refundable in the event of cancellation of admission, and is separate from any applicable cancellation charges.

7. Selected candidates may pay fees via Net Banking / NEFT / RTGS. Payment or transfer of fees does not guarantee admission.
